Ross House Association Member and Tenant News

Governance at Ross House

FROM THE ROSS HOUSE TEAM

Vincent Kierin Kiss outlined the purposes and ideals of what became Ross House in the Supreme Court of Victoria in 1985. Part of that vision was the establishment of a management committee for the administration and management of the building. That committee would determine which organisations would use the premises and the terms and conditions of occupancy. Later on, this concept evolved with Ross House Association being appointed by the Trustees in 1994 to manage Ross House on the Trustees' behalf. In 2011, RHA took the next step to become the Trustee for the Ross House Trust, meaning this building is now truly community-owned and managed. The mission of the Association, as outlined in the constitution, is to work towards a socially just, environmentally sustainable, and non-discriminatory society based on the community development principles of inclusion, consultation, and collaboration, by supporting and enhancing the contribution of small community organisations towards their communities and the broader society.

The governance structure that exists at Ross House is designed so that Ross House Association members have input into the decisions that affect them. Along with the Committee of Management, who are elected at the AGM, there are a number of subcommittees that members can join at any time. Currently in operation are the Finance & Risk Subcommittee, Community Development Subcommittee, Membership & Tenancy Subcommittee, and the Green Focus Working Party. If you are interested in being involved in the governance structure of Ross House, please contact CEO Michael Griffiths at michael.griffiths@rosshouse.org.au.

A SHOUT OUT FOR PARTICIPANTS to join the RHA Community Development (CD) sub-committee.

We are currently seeking Ross House community members to join sub-committees and contribute to Ross House. All sub-committees explore ideas and options, making recommendations that go to the RHA CoM for approval. At present, we are specifically looking for additional Community Development sub-committee members.

This sub-committee meets for approximately an hour every six weeks, either in person or via Zoom, depending on what activities we are planning. We look at events and initiatives for tenants and members by exploring ways to enhance the Ross House community networks and showcase events. For example, in May, we will hold a morning tea for the community to celebrate IDAHOBIT day. You will find more detailed information about the event in this newsletter.

Currently, we are exploring in-person and digital initiatives to bring the Ross House Community together. This includes the development of a yearly calendar of events.

Members of sub-committees do not need to be a member's nominated representative. They can be anyone interested in Ross House, Community Development, and wish to contribute to Ross House and its governance model.

Active participation in Ross House community management has always been part of Ross House philosophy. It is essential that people put their hand up to be part of the way Ross House operates. Since its inception, Ross House has always been a community-run model, and that is unique.

I encourage anyone interested in knowing more to contact CEO Michael Griffiths at michael.griffiths@rosshouse.org.au or myself at cmca.rha@gmail.com.

RHA Chairperson,
Christine McAuslan.

Tenant Feature: Welcoming Mixed Nuts Media!

BY MIXED NUTS MEDIA INC.
ROOM 4.8

Mixed Nuts Media Inc. (MNM) is a video and arts organisation for people with mental illness. We formed in 2012 and have made commissioned videos for other organisations including Cohealth, the Flemington Kensington News, and Moonee Valley City Council. We have run courses in video production, editing and writing, made videos for ourselves, and we have developed a website. We have just moved into Ross house and are excited by the opportunities to interact with other groups.

Participants in MNM need to have a mental health diagnosis or have formerly had one. We also have mentors who don't have to have mental illness. We acquire new participants for courses and training. We have obligation-free discussions with people who want to participate or develop a project.

Video by
Mixed Nuts Media

Mixed Nuts Media is settling into Ross House and we are working on planning for new training and projects. We have a management committee and are a not-for-profit, incorporated association. During the COVID19 pandemic we made a video for the Moonee Valley City Council called "The COVID Chronicles." It is available on our website and on the Moonee Valley City Council's website where it was one of their most popular films. It is about how people with various disabilities handled the lockdowns. We made "The Making of the COVID Chronicles," also. Many of our videos we don't have rights over as they were commissioned by other organisations, but we have a good selection of videos on our website.

We also have a division in MNM called FIG which is The Female Issues Group, for our female members to work on their own projects. Many of our videos relate to mental illness or disabilities in general, but we can make videos on any topic. We also sell art and a colouring-in book created by our chairperson Sue Armstrong. These are available on our website.

For more information, to contact us, or to purchase our colouring in book visit us at www.mixednutsmedia.org.au, or we may see you around the building.

Assisi Aid Projects Update

In March, Assisi's CEO Jacqueline Parisi and Program Manager Cate Coleman travelled to Tamil Nadu, India, to visit our partner Integrated Development Trust. While there, they spoke to project staff and participants of our joint single women's and children's projects and visited the projects.

Jacqueline and Cate were highly impressed by the work carried out by the project teams and were moved by the stories the women in the communities shared with them. Speaking of the experience, Jacqueline says, "Through meeting the participants, it was clear to us how the lives of the women and children have been truly changed through the projects – we were able to see first-hand the wonderful impact our projects are having. Thank you very much to all our supporters!"

Meanwhile, on International Women's Day, Her Excellency Ms Felicity Volk, Australian Ambassador to Nepal, visited Business and Professional Women Nepal (BPW Nepal) and Assisi Aid Projects' new ANCP-funded project, 'Advancing Women in Agroforestry Business Enterprises', in Jumla. Ms Volk said, "Women's economic empowerment underpins the wellbeing and prosperity of local communities, nations, and the globe. It is also key to the realisation of the human rights of women and girls themselves. That is why the Australian Government has a target that 80 per cent of its development investments must effectively address gender equality." Many thanks to Ms Volk and everyone involved in making the day a great success!

Voice At The Table Radio Show On 3CR

BY VOICE AT THE TABLE

Voice at the table (VATT) is a program that supports and build the advocacy skills of people with cognitive disability. The aim is for people with a cognitive disability to be confident to speaking up in their own lives and take on leadership roles in the community. For example, by being part of boards and committees.

People with cognitive disabilities are too often left out of the conversation. We do not get to hear their voices. The VATT radio show enables the stories and experiences of people with a cognitive disability to be put out into the world. And it supports people with cognitive disability to continue to build their advocacy skills.

The VATT radio show is hosted by Warren Loorham with Dan Sullivan as the audio producer.

The people who come onto the show to share their stories have cognitive disability.

The exciting news is that the VATT radio show is now being played on the community radio station 3CR. You can listen the show live every fourth Wednesday of the month at 6pm.

You can listen to previous episodes anytime. To listen please visit www.3cr.org.au/voiceatthetable

A Letter From Deafblind Victoria

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing on behalf of DeafBlind Victoria Australia to inquire if your organisation and colleagues would be interested in making a donation. This is to support a deafblind person's attendance at the Deafblind International (DbI) 18th World Conference in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada from July 22 to 28, 2023. The conference includes a comprehensive 4-day educational program run by Deafblind Network of Ontario (DBNO), providing an opportunity for the Deafblind Victoria representative to connect with people who understand deafblindness globally and bring back networks and learnings to create greater opportunities for the local Deafblind community.

DeafBlind Victoria has a paper in the conference about the history of DeafBlind Victoria, which started in 2007. DeafBlind Victoria is a non-profit community group with a low annual income of under $20,000, which covers rent and event costs, etc. It is a self-advocacy group run by deafblind people, with three co-founders: Michelle Stephens, Trudy Ryall, and Heather Lawson. Over 50 deafblind members within Victoria participate in projects and events, with approximately 30 volunteers. We are anxiously looking forward to achieving our goal to reach $50,000 to cover the expenses for 1 deafblind person, 2 Auslan interpreters, and 2 support workers to attend the conference, a total of 5 people.

The details for this year's conference are as follows (CND = Canadian Dollars):

- Air flight costs: $6,000 return per person. For 5 people, the total cost of air flights is $30,000.
- Accommodation costs: Two Bedroom Suites at THE WESTIN OTTAWA (11 Colonel By Drive Ottawa, ON K1N 9HA Canada) cost $329 CND per night per person. For 5 people, the total cost of accommodation is $2,268 CND.
- Conference registration fees: $1,250 for full conference registration for 1 deafblind person, and $500 each for full conference registration for 4 support persons, totalling $3,250 CND.
- Other miscellaneous expenses (food, public transport, travel insurance, etc.): Total costs of miscellaneous expenses are $14,482. CND

We know organisations such as yours have a desire to give back to local communities. If your organisation would like to contribute any amount of money for this wonderful opportunity, we can provide an invoice of the donations. If you make a direct deposit, please include the words "conference donation" in the transaction description. Account details are as follows:

Commonwealth Bank of Australia

people without mental illness have auditory hallucinations. A condition like schizophrenia needs to be thought of more as an acquired injury, and people with schizophrenia deserve respect, humanity and care.

There are many ways to integrate mental health realities like schizophrenia into a fulfilling life. These include counselling, understanding personal stressors and coping mechanisms, medication, trauma healing and cultural connection. The arts offer a great way for everyone to express voice and identify, begin to heal, and feel part of good things.

Update from Elder Rights Advocacy

From 15 – 21 May, we celebrate our amazing volunteers as part of National Volunteer Week. The theme this year is The Change Makers, and our Community Visitor's Scheme volunteers definitely create change with the friendships that are made with older people in the community.

Our Board Members and Ambassadors are also creating change through their leadership, support and tireless commitment to ensuring that the rights of older people are upheld.

In June, our advocates will be speaking at different events for World Elder Abuse Awareness Day (WEAAD) events at local councils and community groups. If you have an event you would like us to participate in, please email education@era.asn.au.

Sadly, we lost two great people recently. Phillipa Campbell, our CEO from January 2020 to October 2022, passed away in February. Mary Anne Hunt, former Elder Rights Advocacy President and OPAN Chairperson, also suddenly died from illness on April 11. We value the contribution of these two incredible humans. They will be missed.

Please visit our website for further tributes.
